

CHAPTER III

ORGANISATION

SECTION I

THE ASSOCIATION'S BODIES

Article 11

1. The Association's bodies are the general assembly, the Board and Supervisory Board.
2. Disciplinary powers shall be exercised by a disciplinary committee.

Article 12

1. Members elected to offices shall inform the Association within a maximum of 30 days of the name of their representative.
2. No member may be represented on more than one of the elected bodies.
3. The members of the Association's bodies may be discharged at any time by decision of the general assembly, which must regularise the situation arising from the body being unable to operate until elections are held.
4. Without prejudice to the special provisions for the chairpersons of the board and the disciplinary committee, if any member of an Association body leaves office before the end of the term for which he was elected, a substitute may be appointed until the next general assembly by joint decision of the officers of the general assembly, the board and Supervisory Board and also the disciplinary committee, if this is the body involved.

Article 13

Members shall hold positions free of charge, unless decided otherwise by the general assembly.
